soined hands yesterday in festive cele- Powers. tration of the third anniversary of Italy's entrance into the world struggle. and with a will proving the truth of sponded with more than customary armth from the first scattering of flowers to the early forenoon to the last "bravo" that rang through Washington Square that rang through Washington Square chanical genius to the manufacture of infernal machines are to be found there. of which was the distribution of flowers "flower girls."

It was a carnival of patriotism, an appeal to the spirit that wars for right, but the Italian, with his love for the beautiful, did not forget the appeal to the appeal to the appeal to the eye and ear. Music and color were the order of day in a city full of standards and banners—the red, white and blue flaunting bravely beside the red, white and green. Flowers were strewn from Wall street to the upper East Side and music was averywhere. and music was everywhere.

Parade on Fifth Avenue. The lavish distribution of flowers inhaled a parade down Fifth avenue of orty-nine automobiles from each of which "flower girls" showered blossom in the passersby. The parade formed at Sixty-first street and proceeded to Washngton Square. Simultaneously teams of women afoot or in autos were similarly active in all the five boroughs.

The opening of the Italian war ex-ibit in Madison Square Garden and the parade of Italian organizations, Boy courts and Red Cross nurses in Brookernoon, but the culminating and crown-ng event of the day was staged in ashington Square.

was there that the Italian festa of red brick dwellings known as not so well known.

shington Square North looked down A "flame thrower," for instance, look-Washington Square North looked down on such a scene. The promoters of the meeting had modestly hoped for an at-tendance of "50,000 or 100,000."

There was no counting the crowd that cheered and surged and bought Red crosses under the eyes of those prim couses, but if Washington Square befountain and its western holds 100,000, then 100,000 old house went up no eye perhaps has deen a throng so densely jammed or so failed in their mind's eye to see Alpine enthusiastic. It is doubtful whether campaigning in its high lights of deadly invesar's ghost, without a ticket and two strong policemen to see him through the strong policemen the strong policemen through the strong policemen to see him through the ong policemen to see him through the Suits of sheepskin with the wool on, sked, narrow little runways reserved furs that recall pictures of Arctic ex-

that dense throng Even Major-Gen. Emilio Guglielmotti military attache, had difficulty in reaching the grand stand with his escort, mattly because of the insistent admirers who surged around him as word of his doubt, to the slowest imagination when arrival ran through the crowd. He had those winter uniforms are seen. kreater difficulty in making himself heard, once he was on the speakers' tostrum, for the crowd cheered and cheered and flatly refused to be still.

speeches by the General; J. Gratton Mc.
Mahon, who came as Mayor Hylan's ian relief, is in charge of Major-Gen.
representative; Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and Cavaller D. Marino, the
The ceremonles at the official opening amont of the Chicago Opera Company. Lella Snelling and Herbert Witherspoon

Roosevelt Not Present.

ne of the disappointments of the event was the failure of Col. Roosevelt to speak. He had headed the list, but nt word yesterdry that he would be sable to attend. He did, however, send following letter just before tile for me to be at the meeting togreetings through you and I take opportunity to pay homage to the th valor and lofty idealism that Italy and her vassal confederate states by -Austria Bulgarta and Turkey aribaidi, and that the Italian speaking places in the Italian kingdom When Italy went into this war Ruswas reeling backward from the great a delivered at her by the Germans, strians and Turks three years ago. tly joined at a time when her adher since then she has fought with the utmost gallantry and efficiency.

Her one great disaster was due to irranherous German intrigue of a kind

Figures which this country must be as much on its guard as Italy herself. Her y and her people railed from this Our country owes a deep debt of frat tude to Italy for what she has done, and I carnestly hope that we shall pay is debt as generously as possible and course the best way to pay It is to make our fighting force in Europe as large and as efficient as it can be rade, and to do this in the shortest pos-

Another incident that threatened to mar the event was the collapse of an ornamental pillar at the corner of the being mounted by Mr. McMahon.

A surse of the crowd overturned the finally fastened column, which struck a man in falling, slightly injuring nim and threatening for a moment to cause a starteste. The pillar was immediately readjusted, however, and though held in blace by willing hands lurched precarically from time to time as the crowd bressed in.

hind the rostrum was the figure o Behind the rostrum was the figure of a solden eagle overtopping all else and flanked by standards and lights in the colors of this country and Italy. This background represented the "Mystic Altar of Victory." The fountain in the sentre of the park was encircled overlead by alternating lights of red, white and green which blinked up at the liminated cross, calm and white, on the spire of the Judson Memorial Saptist re of the Judson Memorial Baptist Church across the way.

The flexta, held under the auspices of the Four Minute Men, was preceded by a parade, which was forced to break up

Brothers in arms aiready for the grim the air lanes high overhead. The circulars show what Italy has done in the war and why she entered it despite a defensive alliance with the Central

Exhibit of War Relies Opens.

The exhibition of Italian war relics. President Wilson's conclusion that he spoke for the American people in his preclamation of the day before. Nor was New York lukewarm in its response. Never a laggard in matters involving freedship or patriotiem, this city re- which its Indian Ambassador, is expended to open the eyes of the average non-combatant to the multiple horrors of a war made with derillah devices beside which its Indian war relics. Formally opened at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the concert hall of Madison Square Garden by Count Macchi discussion. which the Indian's tomahawk and scalper seem as innocent as nursery too, ranging from the trench mortar and the folding bicycle used by the Bereagliert cyclists to exact models of the earth shaking big guns. The trench periscope with its protective camoufinge divides interest with "The Devil of Paicvo," a 5.5 inch trench mortar so named wage on the Alpine front against the common enemy. Of the enemy mechanical atrocities a circular issued yesterday says quite truthfully:

"Any one who still holds the feeling that the Allies are fighting a fair enemy will lose it at once upon viewing the ghastly array collected by Italian sailors and solders on the and soldiers on the Austrian front. I is this portion of the exhibit which at once fastens itself upon the minds of visitors; foul instruments adopted by the Huns and Austrians for their own peculiar style of fighting."

Finishing Off Club Shown.

One of these exhibits, a collection of studded clubs described by the Italian sailors in charge as the Austrian "finish-ing off club," is aiready familiar to the American public. It is used for killing the helpless—wounded or gassed—sol-diers. There are other devices, however, ing like the devil's contrivance it is is shown near a ground map of Venice thickly specked with black dots. Each dot shows the landing place of a high explosive or incendiary bomb. The bat-tered husks of the bombs also are there. tered husks of the bombs also are the presenting many shapes and ranging in size from a sphere hardly larger than a shand grenade to a monstrous thing half as large again and closely resembling tains, unscalable by human feet, captured by Italian engineers, and caplemust have been there.

around the grand stand, save where solaround the grand stands of huge size, floating the grand stands of huge size, floating mines, torpedoes, relics of the Austrian U-boat 12 sunk near Venice on August 8, 1915—all are crowded into the hall, as are exhibits which will prove the hall are crowded into the hall August 8, 1915—all are crowded into tains were really, each of them, conthe hall, as are exhibits which will prove of especial interest to those who have Italy and guarding freedom by day and fulled in their manner.

r ticket holders, could have edged into ploration, give point and meaning to at dense throng.

Kipling's description of the "lone Italian

Italian Ambassador Present.

The exhibition, which will be open to public for three Butler and Cavaller D. Marino, the The ceremonies at the official opening were brief. The Italian Ambassador, accompanied by his staff, entered the concert hall to the airs of the national anthems of the Allies. He was introduced by William Fellowes Morgan, proportion to the number there; but the president of the Merchants Association and vice-president of the Italy-American Society. Mr. Morgan said it was a slowing letter just before starting speaking trip to the middle West:

DEAN SIDE: I wish it were postor to be at the meeting to As that is not possible I send trip to the meeting to as that is not possible I send trip to the meeting to a trip to the meeting to the meeting to a trip to the meeting to a common determinance of sacrifice, a common determinance of the minute of sacrifice, a common determinance of sacrifice of the minute of s

I most earnestly hope that Italy will aside to round out the great work of for Emmanuel, Cavour Mazzini and third year in the war. A cable was also dier, apparently wounded, a bandage ribaidi, and that the Italian speaking sent to the King of Italy containing the labout his head, and in his left arm he shad gathered the flowing folds of Italy as the calebration under the historical Washington Arch. Gov. Whitman arrived torical Washington Arch.

Gov. Whitman arrived just about the sword, striking down the chemies of that time that Mr. Joseph B. Thomas was flag. [Applause.]

time that Mr. Joseph H. Thomas was about to conclude the programme with his military staff and a great ovation followed. He was escorted to the stand loud a place alongside of Prince artitude of Italy—oh, it represents that but it represents the attitude of America. Italy, Great Britain and We are the young man of the

BLISS TO AID "DESERTERS."

Will Send Names of Italian Soldlers to Home Government.

24.—The Italian Government will no! longer collect the military tax from the parents of so-called "deserters" from the litalian army who at the present time lambitions which led to this exhibition of a desire to attain it, unless it defined Major-Gen. Hugh L. Scott has his say.

There are about 250 or more Italian born young men at Camp Dix, having been drafted from various parts of New Jersey, Delaware and New York State. Many of these were unable to get back to their own country, though willing to join the Italian army, and they are classed as "deserters" in that country

THIRD YEAR IN WAR

THIRD YEAR IN WAR

THIRD YEAR IN WAR

The Brooklyn paraders, marching in the afternoon, were headed by Michael Laura, Deputy Street Cleaning Commissioner. They were reviewed at Borough Hall by Borough President Riegelmann, Fire Commissioner Drennan and other county, borough and city officials. A mass meeting in Prospect Hall and a banquet followed.

Bome 2,000 persons attended a celebration on the lawn of Bellevus Hospital and many of the convalescent patients and many of the convalescent patients in should express the hope, which I sho

Refers to His Trip.

Secretary Baker said:
"I tender the greetings of the American Army to their associates and fellows in the armies, the army of Italy. [Applause.] I tender, if I may ven ture, the greeting of the American peo-ple to the people of Italy as their fellow workers in the great task of rescuing civilization from the most menscing assault made upon it within the memory of living man.

"I recently had the high privilege of visiting the entire front, from the English Channel to Venice. I saw the superb and veteran army of Great Britain, France and Italy; I saw the heroic associates which our own army was to fight with, and I had then, as I have now, a sense of stirring and rising pride in the feeling that this increasing number of ships which cross the sea and carry America's great and splendidly equipped and prepared army will carry men worthy to be classed with those heroes, and that they will find heroes worthy of their fellowship. "The American Army must travel 3,000 miles across the sea. It has to because of its density capture from the Austrians.

Many of the exhibits are concrete instances of German savagery and all speak with eloquent tongues of the grimly bitter fight which the Italians wage on the Alpine front against the common enemy. Of the enemy mechanical atrocities a circular issued yesterday call atrocities a circular issued yesterday.

Instead States Navy.

"It fills me with happiness to be able he success of the American navy. [Applause]. It fills me with happiness, too, to be able to say with confidence and assurance that the submarine is growing eas and less a peril of the deep; that we are mastering that viper by the in-genuity of our sailors. So this great army of American boys is streaming across that sea and taking its place beside the British and the French, and my mind easily projects that picture to another which I saw in Europe.

"At the headquarters of Gen. Diag the Commander in Chief of the Italian army, I was shown a continuous photograph which reproduced the Italian front from its westernmost limit to Venice; then the unscalable mountain peaks, whitecapped and heaven kissing as they seemed to be for the steater part of seemed to be for the greater part of the line, and then the long drawn out system of intrenchments through the Venetian Plain, and I saw there British tured by Italian engineers, and cable-ways running up to them from bottom-less valleys, it seemed, and carrying up cannon and men and munitions until these white fingered, uppointing moun

My mind ran then, and it runs now, to this picture: Already there are in Italy representatives of America. The Red Cross is there, carrying the message of our heart and of our head to Italy; the Y. M. C. A. is extending its work there: the American army is already represented in Italy by a large and important [Great applause.]

Pictures Great Purpose.

Society. Mr. Morgan said it was a pleasure to announce that two of the ships to be launched to-day by the United States Shipping Board bear the names of two illustrious Italians, Victor Emittanuel and Garibaldt.

The Ambassador paid a tribute to that the French portion of the line what the first portion of the line what the line what peculiarly fitting now that the two countries shoulder to shoulder should be battiling for them.

At the conclusion of the flesta a most artistic and fascinating, the most r and lofty idealism that italy on in this great struggle for the conclusion of the flesta a most artistic and fascinating, the most artistic and fascinating, the most artistic and fascinating, the most religious distribution against Gerbard was sent to President Wilson gripping poster I have seen anywhere in any country. It was a poster issued by rangements committee, in which they friend. Mr. Nitti, the Minister of the sale of Italian bonds, the armsetly hope that Italy will thanked the Chief Executive for setting.

"Our enemy in this contest, particu-CAMP Dix, WRIGHTSTOWN, N. J., May larly the German Empire, desired to exchange an honorable place in the family of nations for what it impudently called are serving in the American army, if that place as an exclusive place between the sun and everybody else.

is standing out now under the full glare of the analyzing sunlight of civilized money. As has well been said, there in a box near by were Mrs. Augustopinion, and it exhibits her ugly and detectable in her international vices and ment of organization Italy has furnished. Mr. and Mrs. Ecnest Letin and Mrs.

Tribute to Cavour.

"When Cavour brought about the uni-fication of Italy, it was not merely that Italy might be one, but it was that the forms of parliamentary government and true liberty might be established in that country, and when he was besought to yield aomething to Austrian aristocratic and autocratic pretensions, he said, 'I cannot go back upon the principles by which I have always lived. If any veil is to be put upon the Statue of Liberty, my hand cannot put it there.'
[Applause.]

England and France and among ourselves, although we were not conscious of it, yet into our being was being bitten, as though by acid, an appreciation of the fact that all that we have, that we value in our institutions, is based upon the liberty of the people. And so when Germany had thus accumulated this volcante strength with which she expected to burst upon the rest of the world and conquer it and made her stroke, it was found there was in England, in France, in Italy and in the United States so deep a common love of liberty that their association as allies

The army and the nation, united today in a real spirit of sacrifice, take up once more the heritage of national feeling in the solemn promise never to lay down their sword while a bit of Italy remains enslaved, or until the motherland be made one from the Alps
to the sea, in political unity, as well
to the sea, in political unity, as well
to the sea, in political unity, as well as in unity of heart, language and feeling, within the boundaries that nature has assigned to her and the sacrifice of her sword while a bit of Italy remains enslaved, or until the
motherland be made one from the Alps
to the sea, in political unity, as well
to the sea, in political unity, as well
on the sea, in political unity, as well to the sea, in political unity,

than that it may share the triumph of this occasion with the French, the British and the Italian veterans, and that ish and the Italian veterans, and that when this war is over the same liberal, ilberty loving principles which have anished to the first contingent of the GORGAS OPPOSED TO than that it may share the triumph of erty mated us as alness in the war, may unite us firmly and permanently as the pro-tectors of a just and permanent peace throughout the world." (Applause).

The President's Letter.

President Wilson's letter to Mr. Hughes follows:

"Mr DEAR MR. HUGHES: Will you con-has always been deep and cordial. We have welcomed to this country with a very genuine welcome millions of Italians who have added their labor and spoke the determination of a liberty loving people intent on Creeing itself from the ancient oppressor."

but on account of the length of the pro-gramme no encores were permitted. En-rico Caruso's selection was the aria Mr. Hughes continued : "Italy was to take her place with programme with the duet "Solenne France and England to rid the world quest ora" from "Forza del Destino" of the menace of brute force and to make secure the foundations of a new interna tional order in which public law inspired by the sentiments of liberty and justice shall be supreme "We celebrate that decision to-night. a decision to which we owe in large measure our present security. France, Great Britain and Italy have made their frontiers our protection and we shall never forget our debt.

Paya Tribute to Soldiers.

attitude of Italy—oh, it represents that —but it represents the attitude of America, Italy, Great Britain and France. We are the young man of the world of nations, we are the people who see the light of the future, who love liberty, understand its Bessings, and we are holding its flag to our heart and striking with our sword against its enemies.

"Three years ago to-night Italian solvonk, where how prespected to the precipices of the proposes, where assaults. We have largely represented in the "diamond watched since then their prodigies of watched since then their prodigies of the watched since then the prodigies of the watched since then their prodigies of the watched since then the prodigies of the watched since the prodicing the prodicing the prodicing the prodicing the pr "Three years ago to-night Italian solpeaks. The world has heard too little of the achievements of Italian arms. Guns were placed and strategic positions held by armed forces, where only veteran Alpinists had previously dired to go. Perhaps first in the record of the daring exploits of this war, which nas ucen replete with instances of extraordinary courage, will stand the almost incredible achievements of the Alpine troops and the army which Caderna.

With his fountain pen. The fountain pen lier arms and give me exerciting in large and other middlemen, are demanded one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of sentences imposed. It is a large sized pen and would be recognized anywhere by the court attendant of the cellar pedier, wagen is a special significance to offenders against the speed laws, as it is the same one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of sentences imposed. It is a large sized pen and would be recognized anywhere by the court attendant of the relative maging the worth having, which the singer struggling with apparent emotion. Now that one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of sentences imposed. It is a large sized pen and would be recognized anywhere by the court attendant of the relative maging and the singular and other middlemen, are demanded one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of sentences imposed. It is a large sized pen and would be recognized anywhere by the court attendant one the singular and other middlemen, are demanded one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of the sum in the worth having, which the singular and other middlemen, are demanded one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of sentences imposed. It is a large sized pen and would be recognized anywhere by the court attendant on the worth having, which the structure of the policy one that the Magistrate uses to score down the record of sentences imposed. It is a large sized pen and would be recognized anywhere by the court attendant on the worth having, which are demanded one th apidly prepared.

"Fortunately the months preceding with Mrs. Ogden moetet.

We war had been months of vigorous With Mrs. E. Henry Harriman were "Fortunately the months precedured the war had been months of vigorous the war had been months of vigorous with Mrs. E. Henry Harriman well the war had been months of vigorous with Mrs. E. Henry Harriman well and well directed military preparation. House, Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey and Rouse, Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey and Rumsey Rumsey and Rumsey Rumsey Rumsey and Rumsey Rumsey a handful. In Greek Britain and in Human history records our indebtedness which have not been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which have not been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which have not been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which have not been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which have not been called upon to make the supreme sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which have no the losses have been cruel. The investment is too great to seem of unity and love of liberty, are called upon to make the suprement sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which are not record to the suprement sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which was a suprement sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which are not sent to the suprement sacrifice. And in Human history records our indebtedness which are not sent to those where were state in the surface was vited to the surface of the hour in the surface of the hour in the surface of the surface of the surface of the surface of the hour in the surface of the surf

Address of the Ambassador.

The Italian Ambassador said: Three years ago a nation that had been waiting for its hour to strike rose as one man from the Alps to rose as one man from the Alps to Sicily, from her eastern to her western sea, to vindicate the rights that were being trampled upon, and to claim her unredeemed brothers who were crying for help. Victory smiled for three years on our army, which was renewing the deeds of valor of ancient Rome.

"Then the enemy, concentrating transport of the enemy, concentrating transport of the offensive transport of the offensive transport of the concentrating transport of the offensive transport of the concentrating transport of the concentration "Then the enemy, concentrating t eason and violence in the offensive "In Italy there was this growth of verse, though not a defeat. The army liberal feeling and love of liberty. In England and France and among our- The army and the mation, united to-liberty that their association as allies italy are called upon to cooperate in the liberation of a threatened world. We rejoice in being hailed by you as talls. On behalf of the American peo-ple and the American Army we send. "On the occasion of your celebration you grateful message, we acclaim you of Italy's entering into the war I wish. among the preservers of civilization and to join with the millions of our country-we ask no higher privilege for the men in appreciation of the armies of American Army, which is increasing rap-idly in umbers on the shores of Europe. by the Italian people in the cause of liblialy, and the great services rendered by the Italian people in the cause of lib-of the progress of civilization."

liberty loving principles which have ani-mated us as allies in the war, may unite. American troops leaving for the Italian of the whole army of the United States. this Star Spangled Banner. It will give me pleasure personally to place it in the hands of the flag bearers of the first military contingent of the United States which leaves to join the Italian army on the Italian front. [Applause.] "I shall regret when this flag leaves fourth of May this expression of my regret that I cannot be present in order to express in person my feeling of admiration for the great Italian people who are engaged with us in the great struggle now going forward for securing the rights of free men?

"The friendship of America for Italy has always been deep and cordial. We has always been deep and cordial. We army on the Italian front. [Applause.]
"I shall regret when this flag leaves me that I am not to be privileged to right more intensely than they ever had it before will serve to strengthen that if remaining still more and crown the many than the vector of the second to carry on this war to a vice the two countries in thought and feeling. "It am sure that I express the sentition sizes. Your soldiers are standing to the two countries in thought and feeling. The whole country when I thus express my admiration for Italy and my hope that increasingly, in the days to come will be one many to the world has been freed to me many express my admiration for Italy and my hope that increasingly, in the days to come will be one many to the world has been freed to me many express my admiration for Italy and my hope that increasingly, in the days to come will be one many to study and training from the measure of the strength of the whole country when I thus express my admiration for Italy and my hope that increasingly, in the days to come will be one many to study and training from the measure of the strength of the whole country when I thus the most of the whole country when I thus the most of the whole country when I thus the two countries in thought and feeling. "It may be the same determination to fall the world has been freed to the whole country when I thus the most of the whole country when I thus the most of the whole country when I thus the went of the whole country when I thus the two countries in thought and feeling. "The world has been freed to the whole country when I thus the two countries in thought and feeling." The world has been freed to the training for mechanics seeking to qualify as world with military hospitals wherealouts and professed in the world has been freed to the training for mechanics of the world has been freed to the training for many to study and training for mechanics and the training for the world has been freed to the world has been freed to the whole the training for the world has the choice of the world has been freed to the whole the training for the world has the first the world has been freed to t

OPERA PATRONS HEAR RED CROSS CONCERT

Una furtiva Lagrima" from "L'Elisir d'Amore." He and Scotti closed the programme with the duet "Solenne in Social Circles Well Represented at Metropolitan.

Persons of national and international prominence occupied the boxes in the Metropolitan Opera House last night on the occasion of the Italian Red Cross concert and the social circles of New York, patrons of opera seasons, were Germany's Place in the Sun.

"But she has her place in the sun. She is standing out now under the full glare opportunity without waste of time or and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Burden of the analyzing sunlight of civilized.

A lot of pretty young women, who with their evening gowns wore also sishes of the Italian colors, sold programmes. Among them were the Misses Aike Davison, Flora Whitney, Leslie Murray, Pauline Morgan, Margherita Di Vecchi, Harmet Vert Motte Chesa Dor. Vecchi, Harriet Post, Muriei Oakes, Dor-othy Norris, Audrey Osborn, Muriei Winthrop, Charlotte Demarcst, Alice and of Countries.

WASHINGTON, May 24 .- A reply from King Victor Emmanuel to President Wilson's greetings to Italy on the oc day by the State Department, said:
"On the occasion of the celebration of

We rejoice in being hailed by you as coallitions disappeared.

"We are not four nations seeking separate national objects, but we are four parts of the civilized world united to which our common battles are being preserve the world's highest possession (Applause).

(Applause).

"Upon this day we celebrate the fact that Italy has for three years bravely faced the sacrifice which this war enfaced the sacrifice which our common battles are being might come, leagued Italy with the nations fighting for the sacred principles fight which we want completed with the liberation of our oppressed by the said she was forced to fice to Warben and our common victories must tions fighting for the sacred principles fight which we want completed with the liberation of our oppressed by whereby soldiers and sallors will be provided it other countries, turned her home into a mighting reached to suffice with the nations fighting for the sacred principles fight which we want completed with the liberation of our oppressed by whereby soldiers and sallors will be provided it other countries, turned her home into a mighting for the sacred principles and rights which the nations fighting feached it other countries, turned her home into a whereby soldiers and sallors will be provided it the might come, leagued Italy with the nations fighting feached it with the inspit of violence from whatever side it other countries, turned her home into a whereby soldiers and sallors will be provided it other countries.

"To-day on the battlefields of France is being concentrated the brotherhood in arms of America and Italy. May this concentration be the happy omen of an increase of the concentration be the happy omen of an increase of the concentration be the happy omen of an increase of the concentration be the happy omen of an increase of the concentration be the happy of the concentration be the happy of the concentration be the happy of the concentration be the concentration of concentration be the happy omen of an ever more close cooperation between the two nations in the future in the field

NEW TRAINING BILL

Ample Laws Now for Habilitating Disabled Soldiers,

Education Board, as proposed in a bill ess. to which it is accustomed, it will be sensite similar the purpose, in the state of the purpose, ause the property of the purpose, ause the purpose of the purpose, ause the purpose of the under these offices should be representaives of such Federal agencies as the oureau of education and the Federal ind the thief who used a pass see to get into the chambers of Magistrate House in the Traffic Court and made away mother of cil enversed, police in the Traffic Fountain pen. The fountain pen ber arms and give me everything in the cellar pedier, wagon in the fountain pen in the fountain pen ber arms and give me everything in the cellar pedier, wagon in the fountain pen in the fountain in the Traffic Court and made away with his fountain pen-has a special significance to offenders dinary courage, will stand the almost iam E. Shepherd and Miss Maude incredible achievements of the Alpine Gwynne Shepherd.

MAGISTRATE'S PEN STOLEN.

The Magistrate was nettled when he sat down to begin business yesterday morning and made quite a rew when he rapidly prepared.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. D. Lanier were found the pen missing. He insisted that the operation of justice was being hampered because he simply can't use the kind of pen that has to be disped every third minute and dries up while he is making up his mind whether it will be ten days or $10.

Refused to Save Girls Seized Wants U. S. to Compel Pro-

SHE SAW MANY SLAIN ALSO ASKS CHEAPER ICE

Thousands of Russians Were Crowded Into Church and Field Marshal von Hindenburg was held in the Cooper institute hist night as an yesterday afternoon, formulated a comofficer who sanctioned the outraging of plete list of things that its members will

Polish nobleman and was living with her for the Federal and State officials the husband and three children near Suwaiki meeting demanded that steps be taken when the war broke out, described the to provide coal, at a price to be fixed by coming of the Prussians to her home and than that planned by former Gov. Odell. In the formal statement of the aims of how Von Hindenburg, who took her house for his heudquarters, forced her to make his coffee in the dining room while her little girl and two boys were bying iii upstairs.

In the formal statement of the aims of the laborites there appeared this pledge ourselves to support those candidates that favor this programme and pledge ourselves to also use our best efforts to prevent the elec-

"He looks just like his pictures, only more so," said she. "His face is purple and he looks apoplectic, but I think he is homes by the German troops and that their parents were frantic with grief at their fate.

Said Girls Belonged to Troops.

Three years ago Italy took up arms knocked down and his teem another for the same ideal causes to which the by the Prussians.

Counters Turezynowicz, who founded hurses' aids and doctors, and in additional consciousness, rabel to every attempt of violence from whatever side it to the rountries, turned her home into a which corresponds to the Red Cross in other countries, turned her home into a whereby soldiers and sallors will be proposed to the rountries.

was soon after this that the crowning tragedy of her war experience occurred.

The Countess described how the Germans surrounded 40,000 Russian soldiers woods and how she saw them in the woods and now she saw them driving the prisoners through the streets headed by the army, to be turned over of her village. If a man fell he was beaten with rifle butts until he either scrambled to his feet or was killed, she said. As many as possible of the prisoners were herded into a church one telegraph and telephone systems, of the Thursday afternoon -- packed in so tightly that it was impossible for an-

Left to Die in Agony.

Then the doors were closed and they were kept inside without either food or water until the second Wednesday afternoon following, when the church was opened again. Fresh prisoners who had arrived in the meantime were forced to carry the corpses to adjacent fields. Within a fex days the clernians of recigious services in the same where they were burned, said the Count-sent to Italy a substantial number of our army's sanitary corps, so that we have doctors and nurses of the American army already there. But I see, and in the no distant future, American machine gun units and American artillery, shoulder to shoulder to shoulder to shoulder with the Italians on their front line. Teibute From Lord Reading.

Tribute From Lord Reading.

Tribute From Lord Reading.

Tribute From Lord Reading.

Tribute From Lord Reading.

The Star Spangled Banner' at a Election by popular vote of all local there was ample authority for rehability and this new association with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the no distant future, American in the no distant future, and this new association with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the Education Board would develop friends in the Education Board would develop friends in the Education and part time day schools free textbooks free textbooks free textbooks free betties and some and this new association with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the Education Board would develop friends in the Education by popular vote of all local there was ample authority for rehability and this new association with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the field on the Education with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the Education Board would develop friends in the Education by the Education by the Education with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the many of the earth of the army and this camp and this new association with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the interval with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the interval with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the interval with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the interval with the Italian Ambassador from Lord in the interval with the Italia

Alma Gluck Stirs Throng. Alma Cluck Stirs Throng. Alma Cluck Stirs Throng. As the next from of the coal resolu-

As the next ben of the coal resolu-man applauded so continuously after she had finished ber appeal for Red eros and finished ber appeal for Red eros and finished ber appeal for Red eros board for vocational education and other was applicated for Rid Cross and finished for appeal for Rid Cross and cross that S. e responded by sing subscriptions that S. e responded by sing an "America" while the audie: we stood as the city purchase enough coal to she told of having arrived in America "a most any energency when the resolution of the resolutio House Has Detective on Hunt for Thief.

She told of having arrived in America a starving child about twenty-rive years to single the interest of the resolution. The form there was nothing to set in the house that one day sing should be sold by the sold by th A detective was assigned yesterday to and promise Jer that one day sic should

GROUT CASE IS DISMISSED.

On motion of District Attorney Lewis Supreme Court Justice Van Sieler Recogive yesterday dismissed two disments pending against Edward WILSON SAVES SOLDIER'S LIFE. Victed of perjury alleged to have been Philadelphia Takes 3 Hr. 11 Min. as itself even country, though willings to join the Italian army, and they are observed in the country from the Italian army, and they are observed in the country from the Italian army, and they are observed in the Country from the Italian Government.

Italian army, and they are observed in the country from the Italian Government.

Italian army, and they are observed in the country from the international vices and of organization litaly has furnished in transpolation that she he stepped into the was president of the United Park Suprement Country from the was president of the United Park Suprement Country from the was president of the United Park Suprement Country from the was president of the United Park Suprement Country from the was president of the United Park Suprement Country from the Was Designed to Supreme Country from the Was Designed to Turn for the Was Designed to Turn from the committed when he was president of The pir mail service from Belmon

COAL DEALERS LAX, Ad SANCTIONED CRIME LABOR LEAGUE SAYS

vision for Winter Supply and Fix Prices.

Programme Advocates Federal Life Insurance and U. S. Control of Resources.

The Labor League of New York city. up to an audience at a Red Cross raily in session in the Aldermanic Chamber demand of all candidates-Federal. Countess Laura de Godzawa Turczy. State and city-at the coming elections. nowicz, an American girl who married a In addition to laying down programmes tion of any candidate who will not agree to work for the accomplishment of this programme." Thomas B. Clark, president of the really alcoholic. He is the cruellest creature who ever drew breath."

The Countess said that two young Polish girls had been taken from their made an essential in all lines.

Programme Outlined.

The programme outlined for Federal action included the following:
"Unconditional loyalty and support to

"I appealed to Von Hindenburg to get for the prosecution of the war, them back," she told her hearers, "but "Additional war revenues to be de-"Additional war revenues to be dethe anniversary of Italy's entrance into the war which is being held in the United States, I am pleased to send you. Mr.
President, and to the American people my own warmest greetings and those of the Italian people.
"Three years ago Italy took up arms for the same iteal causes to which the powerful American republic later gave Counters Turczynowicz, who founded
"Additional war revenues to be derived from income, inheritance and excess profit taxes, which should be graduated and substantially increased and their payment permitted in instalments.
"Establishment of an adequate system of taking care of soldiers and sailors by immediate training of sufficient nurses, nurses aids and doctors, and in additon the same item in the same item in the same item in the same item in the same item in the same item in
counters Turczynowicz, who founded the same item in the father sought to defend her he was
been father sought to defend her he was
the father sought to defend her he was
been father sought to defend her he was
the father sought to defend her he was
been father sought to defend her he was the father sought to defend and substantially increased the same their payment of takes.
The daughter of her butler—a girl under 17 years old —was turned over to the
and their payment of takes.
The daughter of her butler—a girl under 17 years old event of the payment and the payment and the payment of takes.
The daughter of her butler—a girl under 17 years old event of the payment permitted in instalments.

whenever required without dependence on private organized charity.

"Candidates for Congress to pledge themselves to improve the port of New York.

Governors Island for Park.

"Governors Island, when no longe: telegraph and telephone systems, of the centralized coal mines and water power and other natural resources which by their nature are monopolies.

"Establishment of a universal eight hour day. Citizens only to be employed on public work, directly or indirectly. "A system of compulsory school at-tendance for all foreigners for a study of the American language, the American form of government, American history and true American ideals."

Of State officials the programme demanded among other things have been pesidents of the State for

"Restoration of State law that only citizens shall be employed on public France (Maryland) to place administration of the measure under the SurgeonGeneral.

A central and unified control for administering rehabilitation work was urged in resolutions adopted to-day by the National Education Association's commission on the national emergency in education

"Obviously, said the resolutions, "the War and Navy departments, each through its Surgeop-General's office, form the natural and most effective agencies in which should be conventrated authority

But acting under Foch and Pershing size by side with men of Russian, Polish and Bohemian blood Democracy will overflow
all of eastern Europe."

Theleve, my friends, that the way is opening for Russia, be raid of being adopted which said that a section were adopted which said that a section with the harriers which have orrecarded that the harriers which have o

pail, hushel, hag, in ton lots and other be dictator, who seems to be more in-terested in protecting the illegitimate profits of the me profiteers than in using his power to protect the interests of th people." The cooperation of the Federal State and cits authorities is urged in preventing an unfair price for ice

AIR MAIL MAKES GOOD TIME

Philadelphia Takes 3 Hr. 11 Min.